Note: In light of the continued high transmission of Covid throughout the state, we are following the current Salt Lake County and Utah State Public Health Guidelines which recommends wearing masks and social distancing while indoors, even if vaccinated at this time. If for whatever reason, as an individual, you are not comfortable in an environment with many other individuals present, look to your Inner Guidance for what is right for you to do with your own situation and please take the health steps you consider best for you and those around you. Thank you!
